

Home Builders Association of the Sioux Empire 2008 Parade of Homes Committee Chair

SIOUX FALLS, S.D. (April 2, 2008) – The Home Builders Association of the Sioux Empire’s (HBASE) Parade of Homes Committee would like to thank this year’s committee chair Kurt Hanson, GMB, CGB, President of Home Tech, Inc., for applying his many years of experience in the building industry while serving as the Parade of Homes committee chair.

Kurt has been in the home building industry for 15 years. Specializing in new construction and remodeling, the motto at Home Tech, Inc. is “Your technology leader in the home building industry.” The latest trend he currently sees is better indoor air quality along with increasing energy efficiency.

Since joining the HBASE 15 years ago, Kurt has been the 1999 HBASE President, Builder of the Year in 2000 and served on these committees: Education, Builders Forum, Home Show, Parade of Homes, Legislative and Personnel. He currently serves on the HBASE Board of Directors.

In his spare time, Kurt enjoys boating, skiing, fishing and hunting. He has two boys and one daughter. Kurt’s favorite meal is King Crab. His greatest accomplishment was graduating from West Point while his secret to success is to follow up on details.

The Parade of Homes is the Home Builders Association of the Sioux Empire’s bi-annual event that highlights every facet of the Sioux Empire’s home building industry. Since 1961, there have been 62 Parade of Homes events, which serve as tributes to its success. Scheduled for May 10-13, 2008, the Spring Parade of Homes will again offer the opportunity to view the latest in new home construction and design.
